Dear Morgan Moore, Ajaunte Calaway, Alicia Jones, Kevin Moriles, Gbolahan Odutola, Brione Walker, Tiara Miayo :

It is a privilege to extend my warmest regards for your participation in Youth Leadership Camp – 2007 under the leadership of Mr. Ronnie Brincefield, Camp Director and Ms. Angela Lewis, Camp Coordinator.

Camps are a good way to learn and develop new skills and new friendships. I wanted to personally commend you for recognizing the importance of leadership at a young age. Having excellent oral presentation skills, a solid financial background, proficient entrepreneurship skills and a commitment to good health and fitness, will assist you in making your mark as a true leader.

Remember...as we reinforce character and family values, we strengthen our homes, schools, community and ultimately our nation.

It is my hope that Youth Leadership Camp – 2007 was an enjoyable learning experience that you will take with you for years to come. Camps such as this serve as a positive foundation for our future leaders.

I encourage you to build on the relationships established during the camp. Please know that your commitment and enthusiasm was instrumental to the over all success of the program.

Your participation and input will not only benefit your fellow camp participants, but will help the camp staff in their efforts to continue to refine and further develop the camp model moving forward.

Therefore, based on the before mentioned contributions, you are worthy to be called a "Future Leader".

You have my best wishes for a bright and successful future.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Mike Glanton, Sr
